“ Uncle Vin as he was affectionally called by friends and family, was one of the finest, and caring man I've known.

He was very generous to everyone - family and friends.

As a young man, he migrated to England from Jamaica to make a better life for himself.

If he was alive today he would fill you in with pleasant anecdotes while working on the bus.

A man of integrity. A family man. I remember he would send his Mom her monthly income. As he would say "I don't want her to be in need of anything".

He was married to his dearest wife Maizie for over 40 years. The union produced one daughter, Carol.

He will be greatly missed.
