

Vivienne McGibbon

September 13, 1946 - October 16, 2022

Vivienne Dawn McGibbon, affectionately known as Dawn/Dawny, died peacefully, with her daughter & other family members by her side on October 16, 2022.

Dawn is survived by her children Franklin McGibbon, Jr and Margurite McGibbon; grandchildren: Sebastien McGibbon, Jared McGibbon, D’Jhion McGibbon and Victoria McGibbon; brother Winston (Dave) Chang, sisters Jennifer Chang and Sharon Chang, special friend - Dennis Douglas, many nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members and many friends

She was preceded in death by her father Vincent Chang, mother Ivy Lyn and brother Lawrence (Larry) Young.

Dawn’s children and grandchildren were the pride and joy of her life. She was also a devout member of St. Benedict’s Episcopal Church in Plantation, FL for over 35 years.

The legacy of Dawn’s devotion to God, passion for family, kind and giving spirit, and love of baking will continue to live through them.

She will be deeply missed but never forgotten. May her soul rest in peace. Viewing – Saturday, October 29, 2022 @ 10am: St. Benedict’s Episcopal

“ I miss Ms. Dawn so much. My husband and my daughter, we speak so fondly of her. I always remember our conversation we had right before she took her last trip to Jamaica. She was explaining how she was feeling. We prayed with her before she left. I am so happy she made that trip. We were at her church yesterday and they remember her as well. So happy to have met her during her life's journey.

“ My most fondest memory of Ms. Dawn as she was affectionately known, to many of her DCF family and friends. She made me a pot of soup for my birthday one year and it was so good. She was so gentle and soft spoken and kind and caring. She was advisor and counselor to many of us younger women. I am ever so grateful that she was part of my life for so many years. I loved being around her because she reminded me so much of my mother. Heaven has gained another beautiful soul. I will forever keep her in my heart. Thank you Ms. Dawn. Condolences to the McGibbon family. RIP.

“ My memories of Ms. McGibbon goes back to my childhood.I remember how elegant she used to look in her uniform with a scarf around her neck when she came to pick Franklin and Margurite from school. Years later I enjoyed her delicious cakes at Christmas time.

She has now taken her place in heaven among the angels in God's care.

Sincerely

Michelle Whitfield

“ From Gilbert, Dorrett and family. We have known Dawn for over 30 years. She was a very genuine person. Dawn was a very proud, passionate and caring mother and grandmother. We will miss those lively chit chat we use to have when we got together. Dawny, we consider you family. Condolences to your siblings and the rest of your family. We will miss you. May your soul rest in peace.

“ I find it incredibly difficult to come to terms with the painful fact that my dearest friend Dawn is no longer with us. Our friendship spans many decades. We attended Primary school together until I emigrated to the U.K., during which time we remained in contact. I will always remember her, especially for her love for God, for her children and siblings. I will cherish the years we have been friends. Her admirable qualities of honesty, humility and devotion to duty and for the values she held dear are qualities that will forever remain with me. She was indeed a true friend. Her smiling face will be permanently etched upon my mind. May she rest in peace until the Life Giver returns. My condolences to all the family. Leslene Peat.
