“ Go placidly amid the noise and the haste and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even to the dull and the ignorant, they too have their story...be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be. And whatever your labours and aspirations in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace in your soul. - Desiderata By: Max Ehrmann

Uncle, it seems like it was just yesterday when we were celebrating your 90th birthday and yet, here we are now celebrating a life well lived. It comforts my heart to know that your greatest achievement has been attained - a crown of life and the Master's affirmation; "Well done though good and faithful servant... enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." (Matt. 25:21)

You were a gentle giant; so family-conscious, so well-spoken, so unassuming. I will miss your wit, your prayers and the life lessons you imparted. But I have gleaned from one of the best, and so the glow of the light that has radiated from you, lives on...

“ Pleased be consoled by the fact that your loved one rests in the arms of God to live again when happiness and peace will replace your tears and pain.
