“ My father the perpetual giver, the husband and grandfather, I'm forever grateful. You were such a role model to so many. There are so many of many my peers who told me in our adult years that it was because of my father why they had khaki pants for their school uniforms. I couldn't have asked for a better father. I could always trust you with my secrets and to rescue me when mom would pull the strap first and ask questions later. For all the love, kindness, protection, and everything else I'm grateful. Even more, I'm grateful you knew. RIP dad, your memory lives on....

It is with deep sadness that I heard of the death of Willie my friend. He was indeed also family being my wife's nephew-in-law. I can say without reservation that I have not known ever a kinder, loving, warmer good natured person. Willie's whole life has truly reminded me of the Good Samaritan story in the bible. His children, grand children and other relatives, I pray will be comforted to know that he lived an exceptionally good life. Sleep well my brother and friend, rest in peace. Heartfelt condolences to his family and friends.....Fr: Glen&Sylvia (Roberts family)

I'm so sorry to hear of Willie's sudden passing....it came as a complete shock, because the last time I saw him he looked and felt great!! We sat at his dining room table and and looked at at pictures of people from Port Antonio in my phone, and reminisced of the good old days....his joy and laughter gave me great pleasure.....the world has lost a genuine Soul, whose generosity and kindness knew no bounds!! Many kids back home went to school properly attired because of his love and caring.... Rest in Peace Dear Willie..... you will be greatly missed!! Condolences to the Family, especially Cecile, Cleveland and Monique.

Cecile,

When I heard the news of your dad's passing I was devastated especially because I know how close the two of you were. Knowing you for 30 years plus, I can attest to the fact that you have been the most devoted and caring daughter a dad could have. You never wavered in making sure he had the best life especially after the passing of your mom. You were truly a daddy's girl! ♡ He loved you dearly and I have no doubt he closed his eyes without a doubt that you genuinely loved and cared for him. You have endless daddy-daughter memories - and for that I'm so happy for you. Cherish his memories. Rest well in knowing that your greatness as a daughter will allow your dad to rest in eternal peace. I love you much! 😊
