

Yolanda Pagan Marquez

October 4, 1955 - March 29, 2026

Our beloved mother, wife, daughter, sister, aunt, and cousin passed peacefully on the morning of March 29, 2026, surrounded by her cherished loved ones. Her life was a shining testament to faith, love, courage, joy, laughter, and unwavering devotion.

Born on October 4, 1955, in Patillas, Puerto Rico, to Angel Luis Pagan and Celia Marquez, she carried her roots, her heritage, and her faith with deep pride. Today, she is reunited with her parents and her sister, Ursula Pagan, while her brother, Jose Pagan, continues to carry her love and light in his heart.

For 22 years, she was the devoted wife of Hector Santana, sharing a steady and genuine love filled with laughter and joy.

As a mother, she nurtured and raised Elliot, Ursula, Yolanda Yasmin, Yolimar, and Joseph with patience, guidance, and faith. She taught them the true meaning of love, strength, and the courage to never give up.

Her grandchildren—Elizabeth, Alexandra, Elliot Jr., Melanie, Christopher, Derrick Jr., Dexter, Antoine, Darious, Adrian, and Jasmine—brought her endless joy and pride. Her great-grandchildren, Ella, Gabriella, and Samantha, were treasures she held close to her heart.

She gave selflessly, loved without limits, and touched countless lives with her kindness and compassion. Her legacy of love, faith, and joy lives on in each of us.

Today, we honor her by carrying her love in our hearts, extending kindness to others, and living as she taught us.

Though she may no longer walk beside us, she lives on in her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. We are her legacy. Her story did not end with her last breath—it continues, vibrant and everlasting, through all of us.

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.” —
2 Timothy 4:7

“ Hi Mom,

I miss you so much. I wish I could have you back. Some days I'm okay because I stay busy and keep my mind occupied, but then reality hits me and the pain comes all over again. There are moments when it still doesn't feel real, and I find myself wanting to call you, talk to you, or hear your voice one more time.

I miss your presence, your love, and the comfort of knowing you were always there. Not a day goes by that I don't think about you. I love you, Mom, and I carry you with me in my heart every day.
